

2005 Education Abroad Student Deaths

Death date/ Day of incident	Name (age) Home state	Home university/ Education abroad program/ Country of study	Location of death/ Cause of death/ Details/ News links	About this student
3/11/05	Andrew Douglas Holter/ (21) Minnesota	University of Richmond/ Study Abroad in Prague/ Undergrad, study abroad, interim travel/ The Czech Republic	Rome, Italy/ Drowned/ Andrew was a journalism student at the University of Richmond, doing his semester abroad in Prague. During spring semester, Andrew traveled throughout Europe. While in Rome, Andrew and a friend dove into the Tiber River. Andrew's friend was able to swim to safety, but Andrew could not. Just thirteen days after his 21 st birthday, Andrew drowned.  http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/twincities/obituary.aspx?pid=3568741  https://www.iol.co.za/news/world/druken-student-dives-into-roman-river-236117	Andrew wrote for the Richmond Collegian. His weekly columns were an insightful, yet humorous analysis of contemporary culture. Family and friends regarded Andrew as selfless, a charming, witty, courageous, and true romantic who found beauty and joy wherever he was.

Non-lethal incidents in 2005:

- Medical Event, illness due to E. Coli
- Medical Event, injury due to assaults
- Sexual harassment/assaults

2005 Education Abroad Student Deaths

Drugging

Kidnapping

Vehicular—Ship traveled through violent storm